HUDSON, NEW YORK, getaways

WHERE TO EAT It makes me hungry just thinking about the Melanzana Cardinale pizza and amazing salads at Baba Louie's. The organic diner Grazin' has an excellent portobello burger, and Earth Foods on Warren Street has wonderful soups and juices. The Historic Village Diner in nearby Red Hook has the best breakfast in all of New York—it's worth the drive for the Belgian waffles and homemade dunker donuts alone.

Warren Street

I carry SkinCeuticals eye cream with me everywhere—it's just the best. And I can't go anywhere without my Ren exfoliating face scrub.

Regan & Smith Antiques

SHOPPING Bavier Brook is the place for Victorian gems, and I love Fern for old maps, globes, and tchotchkes. Rodgers Book Barn in Hillsdale is my go-to for unusual books and records, and Regan & Smith Antiques is great for furniture.

TOP tip...
"Most of my time is spent at the antiques shops on Warren Street, but we also do bonfires and swim in the nearby lakes."

PACKING LIST

Filson makes great travel bags. I always pack boyfriend jeans from Rag & Bone and bring a big tote from Mansur Gavriel. I throw in a bikini from Mara Hoffman, Raquel Allegra T-shirts, Ace & Jig shorts, Warby Parker sunglasses by Leith Clark, and a lot of my jewellery (available at Le Mill in India).

WHERE TO STAY

Mount Merino Manor is my favourite B&B. The rooms have a view of the mountains and are outfitted with beautiful antique furniture. I also stay at the Croff House, a gorgeous Victorian near a lot of antiques shops. ■
